Meditations

Permission to reproduce these meditations was granted by their authors.

5777 Design: Rising by Elyssa Wortzman

Please light the Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle™ on the evening of Wednesday, April 11, 2018. Recite one of the following meditations as you light it:

Rabbi Jules Harlow

As I light this Yellow Candle, I vow never to forget the lives of the Jewish men, women, and children who were martyred and are symbolized by this flame. They were tortured and brutalized by human beings who acted like beasts; their lives were taken in cruelty.

May we be inspired to learn more about our six million brothers and sisters as individuals and as communities, to recall their memory throughout the year, so that they will not suffer a double death.

May we recall not only the terror of their deaths, but also the splendor of their lives. May the memory of their lives inspire us to hallow our own lives and to live meaningful Jewish lives so that we may help to insure that part of who they were shall endure always.

Ron Adler

Who Am I To Speak Of A Time?

Who am I to speak of a time
of families crushed, of crimes of mankind,
of children in hiding and living in fear,
of mothers trying to hide all their tears,
of fathers praying to an empty heaven,
of people dying again and again?

Who am I to know what it was like to be persecuted by day and trapped by the night,
to be surrounded by a world turned upside down,
to be starved and tortured and beaten to the ground,
to witness a nation of hate marching past,
to see all their dreams broken and shattered like glass?

Who am I to mention their suffering and pain,
the ghettos, the camps, life and death inhumane?
I wasn't even born, I wasn't even there,
it happened long ago, it could never happen here.

Who am I to know what God had in mind
when the virtues of man were buried alive,
when good lost to evil and hope turned to despair,
when hell upon earth seemed everywhere?

Who am I to let their memories be forgotten,
to say and do nothing as if it never happened,
to forsake the loss of our Jewish family,
to live in a world of complacency?

Ron Adler

The Blessing of the Yellow Candle

We light this yellow candle to rekindle God's flame,
To shine His light upon the world once again,

To sanctify the memories of the millions of souls,
To honor their prayers and all their lost goals.

We bless their existence by being alive
To light this yellow candle as proof we survived.

Why Yellow Candles?

This Guide and the Yellow Candle™ website are valuable resources for enhancing your observance of Yom HaShoah. Your organization, club, synagogue or church should strive to increase the awareness of the Holocaust within your communities.

The program logo is a yellow Magen David (Star of David) outlined with barbed wire, with the word “Jude” in the center. This preserves the memory of the armband or cloth patch that Jews were forced to wear in the ghettos of Eastern Europe. To keep the memory of the Holocaust current, FJMC has engaged artists with vision to redesign the label so it speaks to current and emerging generations. The candle label contains French, Spanish, Hebrew and English because the Holocaust touches everyone.

Rising (2016)
by Elyssa Wortzman

Artist, teacher, award-winning program developer and Jewish Spiritual Director, Dr. Elyssa Wortzman, asks and answers the question, “How do you transmit memory and loss to someone who does not have a direct connection to the past event?” in her work Rising that appears on this year’s Yellow Candle.

Successful Programming Ideas

Yom HaShoah Commemorative Film Showing

The community is brought together in the synagogue to watch a Holocaust related film or series of films. Each film is briefly introduced prior to its showing. Following the conclusion of the film, a brief discussion is held. In addition to the Yellow Candles™ you distributed have additional ones available. As people leave they are reminded to light their candle or encouraged to take one home with them and make a donation toward future Holocaust education.

A film showing can be used as the basis for an interfaith program or dialogue designed to bring teenagers and adults together. Coordinate with your congregation's Post B'nai Mitzvah class or youth groups. You might even have them select the film!

The following companies and their websites distribute or have produced films with Holocaust content. These are independent companies and the FJMC is not responsible for their content. A list of suggested films appears on our website.

- Katahdin Productions - <http://www.katahdin.org/>
- Israeli Films - <http://www.israelifilms.co.il/>
- Film Movement - <http://www.filmmovement.com/>

A Special Yom HaShoah Friday Evening Commemorative Service

In many communities, Holocaust memorial services traditionally take place the evening of Yom HaShoah. By utilizing the Friday evening service closest to Yom HaShoah and adding a few special elements, attendance can be increased and a memorable experience can be created.

Work with your Rabbi and if it applies your Ritual Committee. Compose and send a note to your congregation in advance of the service, requesting that the names of family members who perished during the Shoah be sent to the synagogue, explain these names will be read prior to the recitation of Mourner's Kaddish. When the names are read, all congregants who have sent in names are asked to rise and to say a few words (if they wish) about their departed relative.

Option: Ask congregants to bring any memorabilia or photographs they might wish to share on display to the synagogue in advance so it can be placed or provide a designated table on the night of the service.

Youth Essay Contest

Host an essay contest to award teenagers who write essays focused on Holocaust awareness. Consider giving out special citations (the FJMC can supply) to all entrants.

Candle Distribution Options

Distributing Yellow Candles by Regular Mail (Bulk Mail)

This method provides the organization with an opportunity to increase member participation. Order Yellow Candles and mailing boxes. Include the following items in each box with the Yellow Candle:

- A letter from signed by your program chair and Rabbi. Samples are on www.yellowcandles.org.
- Meditations - available for download on www.yellowcandles.org or reproduce the inside cover of this guide. Space has been left at the bottom of that page to add text (ex. – your group’s name & website).
- Poetry – Rick Black, an FJMC member and poet, has donated three poems that are available for download on www.yellowcandles.org.
- Self-addressed return envelope for voluntary donations.

Distributing Yellow Candles by Hand

This is the least expensive method to distribute candles. It is a great way to promote your organization. Some Clubs use father/child delivery teams. Order candles and yellow plastic door bags. Include the same items in the bag as in the boxes prepared for mailing below.

Distributing Yellow Candles by Direct Mail (available only in the United States)

This is an easy way for an organization to distribute Yellow Candles. Order individual candles (minimum of 100 names) from FJMC, to be delivered directly to your congregant list.

Direct-mail candles will be sent out about four weeks prior to Yom HaShoah. To utilize this option, follow the instructions on the front and reverse of the DIRECT MAIL ORDER FORM enclosed with this guide.

How to Pack for Bulk Non-Profit Mailing

The new U.S. Post Office friendly box will save on postage. The non-profit mailing box size is designed for Post Office automatic processing machines. Boxes are packed 48 to the carton. The complete weight with inserts must not be less than 6 ounces. Insert in the box the following: Yellow Candle; 5 sheets of paper – consider letters from your Rabbi, Cantor, Yom HaShoah Chairman and President of congregation or Men’s Club, and/or a meditation; a #10 return envelope; and a rubber band to wrap the letters and envelope around the candle. This will equal 6 oz. When you take candles to the Post Office, have them weigh 6 candles and divide by 6 for the proper weight. Deliver to post office at least four weeks prior to Yom HaShoah. This allows time for your mailing to be delivered by USPS bulk mail.

Ordering Yellow Candles from FJMC

What did you order last year? This is a good indicator of your basic candle needs. Then think of ways to increase your community involvement. Consider the following:

- Order one Yellow Candle™ for current household/member in your synagogue or organization.
- Expand your audience - include individual and members of other organizations or groups you expect to participate in your community-wide Holocaust programs.
- Send candles to prospective new congregants (involve your membership committee). This may be a great way to attract new members to your congregation.
- Partner with other local institutions such as unaffiliated synagogues, museums, Jewish Community Centers, day schools or churches; share program activities, speakers, or resources, and combine orders to maximize discount savings.
- Set up a Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle™ display in your lobby or other gathering place to tell the story of Yom HaShoah and the objectives of your Yellow Candle program.
- Use Yellow Candles on the bima or podium as part of your Holocaust memorial programs or services.
- Candles are shipped only in full cases of 48. Divide the total number of candles required by 48 to determine the number of cases to be ordered, rounding up to be sure that you have enough.
- Remember to include with your order the same amount of shipping boxes or plastic bags to accommodate a chosen shipping method (mail or hand delivery.)

Instructions for Ordering Yellow Candles for Direct Mail Shipment

Yellow Candles™ are individually mailed by standard nonprofit bulk mail to members of your congregation or organization about four weeks prior to Yom HaShoah.

A mailing list with same number of names and addresses as there are candles in your order is required. For example, the minimum order is 100 candles, if that is the size of your order then your mailing list should have 100 names and addresses. It can be supplied as an electronic file as described below or a printed list.

Send a Computer Disk by Postal Mail with this Order

- On a CD, DVD or thumb drive; in a MS Word table or Excel – (.csv) spreadsheet format
- Prepare database fields as follows:
Name, Address, City, State, ZIP (FIVE FIELDS ONLY)

Example:

Note:

- Only the above file format is acceptable. If any additional fields are included, your data will not be acceptable.

- Please do not send labels!

Cover Letter

Only one (1) original of the congregation/organization cover letter is required.

Tear-Off Form

To facilitate the return of individual contributions to cover the cost of the Yellow Candle program and to support Holocaust commemoration programs, a tear-off form should be added to the bottom of the congregation/organization cover letter. The format for the tear-off form (to be returned in a standard #10 windowed envelope included in the mailing) includes a return address in the lower left so that it will show through the envelope window with space for the donor's name and address on the right. Sample letters with tear-off forms can be found by going on-line to www.yellowcandles.org.

Before Sending Order

- Do all names have complete addresses, including city, state, and ZIP code?
